

Hachamah Meirosh (Shabbat Hamalkah)

The sun on the treetops no longer is seen.
Come out, let us greet the Sabbath, the queen.
See! She descends, the holy, the blessed,
Her messengers with her, of peace and of rest.
Welcome! Welcome the queen!
Welcome! Welcome the bride!
Peace be with you, messengers of peace!

We received the Sabbath with song and with prayer,
To our homes we bring hearts filled with gladness to share.
The table is set there, the candles are bright,
Sabbath of peace and blessings,
Sabbath of peace and rest.
Enter in peace, messengers of peace!
